- VI. Unfinished Business
 - A. Voter registration – Discussion Item
The Commission will get an update on calendar events for voter registration. Voter Registration days will take place Tuesday September 24th, Thursday Oct. 10th, and Tuesday Nov. 5th. Queen Mothers would like to reach out and assist in census collection of our voters. We are still waiting on an update to our becoming an official voting center. Bradshaw mentioned as a side note, much of our voting population is a part of the harder to count population of individuals ie. the young, the old, and students; therefore along with Queen Mothers assistance we will try to focus on creating a more accurate voter census of these individuals this year.
 - B. College Involvement and Values Impacting Communities (CIVIC) – Discussion Item. The Committee will receive information on the CSSA Civic Engagement Contest.

Everyone is encouraged to complete as many Club Points Forms as possible. A printable version can be found online at ASICSUDH.edu. All forms, after completion, should be forwarded to Tinoco.

C. CSU Quantitative Reasoning Requirements – Discussion Item

The Committee will receive an update on the Board of Trustee (BOT) special meeting.

The BOT will continue with their special meeting to discuss a fourth year quantitative reasoning requirement on Aug. 29th. Jackson added that we ideally want to investigate how it is that the BOT believes this will greatly increase the wellbeing of students at University. As it stands, we continued discussion with the focus that ideally we would support actions that boosted the number of graduates at University without creating more restricting on enrolling individuals. Jackson also suggested that, the more we push CSSA to voice their opinion and gain information on the matter, the more attention it should draw to CSU Chancellor White and the CSU community of students in general.

VII. New Business – None.

VIII. Reports

Tinoco – Voter registration plans are underway. Tinoco pushed that we should all begin to make this year’s registration as large scale a campus effort as possible. Also we are screening and interviewing for Student-At-Large Interns.

Jackson – Wants to tackle remaining University questions; get club meeting times, faculty hours, parking structure info, and housing plans in order.

Giron – Two new planned parenthood sites will be opening relatively close to campus in Compton and Carson. Both will feature child day care options. Any additional support to the group will be greatly appreciated.

IX. Open Forum – Discussion Item

Time for members of the audience to address the Committee
None.
