 - A. Elections Timeline – Discussion Item
The Commission will discuss on-going progress of Elections
Janes will be picking up Election packets from the library on Monday and candidates' eligibility will be verified within the next three days; the candidates will receive a letter stating their status. February 24th is the first Candidate Orientation Meeting. February 28th is the first day of publicity.
 - B. Elections Tabling Efforts - Discussion Item
The Commission will discuss possible dates and strategies for upcoming tabling dates
There will be a tabling event from 12-3PM on Monday and 9-11AM on Tuesday.
From 10AM-2PM the tabling will be focused on CPI in the South Walkway (Farmers Market).

- C. Elections Voting Strategies – Discussion Item
The Commission will discuss and consider ways to get more students to vote in the upcoming 2020 Elections.
The email reminders to students worked during the last Elections so Janes will do the same process again. The commission discussed having a space at the end of the ballot for students to write in which Board member encouraged them to vote; a gift card may be a prize for the member that had the most students vote.

- VII. New Business
 - A. Classroom Presentations – Discussion Item
The Commission will discuss Classroom Presentations
Classroom presentations will take place during the weeks in March leading up to Voting; the Commission discussed providing a prize to the Board member that does the most presentations.

 - B. Candidate Orientation Presentation – Discussion Item
The Commission will review the Candidate Orientation presentation.
Janes presented the PowerPoint Presentation that the candidates will receive.
The following information was provided in the Presentation:
Campaign finances cannot exceed $500 per candidate Includes donated materials, no ASI or OSL funds or materials can be used by candidates, classroom presentations are only allowed upon approval from instructors and campaigning must not interfere with classroom lectures. All flyers need to be first approved by ASI then taken to the OSL office for stamped approval; ASI logo may not be used on any campaigning materials.
Voting will take place March 16th-19th.

- VIII. Reports
Janes reminded the Commission to attend as many tabling events as they can. Club Fest is taking place on February 20th from 5-9pm in where there will be 45 clubs tabling and the ASI Block Party is on February 29th from 12-5pm.
Marin is working on classroom presentations.

- IX. Open Forum – Discussion Item
