B. Review of the ASI Administrative Budget – Discussion Item

The Commission will begin reviewing and discussing the administrative budget for the fiscal year 2021-2022.

Ahouansou went over 2021-2022 ASI Budget Draft and briefly explained the purpose of each category and the funding amount the area receives. Ahouansou noted the projected revenue from student fees was $9,150 in summer 2020, $994,000 for Fall 2020, and 879,450 in Spring 2021. She further noted this is still working draft the headcount of summer 2020, Fall 2020, and Spring 2021 would be adjusted for accurate student fee revenue. Nishioka would forward the enrollment information to her once it is ready. Ahouansou asked Commission to assist in determining projected headcount by either staying conservative or following the university actuals. Ahouansou noted this will be last year for Toro Learning Center Referendum Entity, to receive any funds they would have come to Finance Commission request for funds. Ahouansou announced that the budget proposals will be due on Friday, February 5, 2021 for Clubs and Orgs. She asked Commission to brainstorm and suggest better allocation ideas for funding that best serve the student population. Ahouansou would send a PDF Budget draft for Commission to analyze and determine a definite headcount.
