- V. Time Certain – 12:45 PM – Christian Jackson, ASI President will present on “My ASI, My Fee” Campaign. Jackson explained that ASI participates in government advocacy work, and funds various services and student affinity centers. The proposed fee adjustment is $50. The current fee of $135 has not been adjusted for the past 18 years. Lakey distributed informational packets regarding the campaign. The Commission asked Jackson why the fee needs to be increased when the enrollment rate has risen by 2,000 students this year. Jackson explained that ASI seeks to provide bigger events, expand the affinity center resources, and more – he also explained that the full $135 amount does not go to ASI alone, but also to the centers and departments that are supported by ASI. Students will be able to vote during the ASI elections on March 16-19. ASI will provide iPads in the East Walkway so that students may cast their votes.
