Quiller presented the website that she created when students were in lockdown which holds information about the club and organizations rules. Along with that, she explains how to navigate that website that she showed and reminded people that she is not the advisor for organizations anymore, but the website will still stand since it has useful information.

B. Revenue Sharing – Discussion Item

The Commission will hear from the ASI Accounting & Finance Manager, Donisha Quiller, concerning an opportunity for club/org funding via revenue sharing.

Quiller mentions how Revenue Sharing is a way to bring more awareness to ASI Elections and each club that participates will get a percentage of money based on their involvement. She highlighted that January 30th is the last day to spend money in their account, after that the dollars given to organizations appear for the following school year.

C. Orgs Updates: Budget and Club Points – Discussion Item

The Commission will hear from the ASI Accounting Clerk, Morelia Castaneda-Patino, concerning the budget and club points.

Patino encouraged club and organizations who have been approved for funds to reach out to her and utilize their money. Most importantly Patino discussed how club points work, she mentions that they can obtain club points based on attendance through meetings, Toro Tuesday, etc. The list is on the virtual office with more details about receiving club points.

D. Organizations Commission End of the Year Meeting Planning –

Discussion Item The Commission will discuss having a wrap up event. Villanueva asked the audience what is the best time to host the Year Meeting Planning, they all agreed that later in the afternoon would be best. Villanueva also asked the audience if they had suggestions for the wrap up event. Villanueva suggested a succulent making station and the audience agreed they liked the idea. Clubs and Organizations will reach out to Villanueva if they have other ideas or suggestions.

E. COTAD's Paid Partnership Request – Action Item

The Commission will discuss funding for COTAD's general meeting. The club is requesting funds to purchase gift cards to encourage new students to join and attend their club.

M/SOT, S/Clinical Science Club motion to approve funding request for gift cards. VOTE: UNANIMOUS
