elections CRM serves as the main hub for all electoral communications, and the Excel sheet can be found in the Elections Commission Dropbox folder. Neustein inquired about how accessible it is for committee members to contact their deans. Cowo responded that it depends on the specific department, while Emmert suggested starting with lower-level coordinator positions. Gonzalez indicated that the initial contact should be made by November 13th. She then reviewed each person's list of contacts. If the committee believes that a designated contact person is not consistently engaging with students, they should inform Gonzalez about who would be a better point of contact. Regarding the digital application process, interested individuals should sign an inquiry form, after which Emmert will reach out to them directly to send the application.

VIII. New Business
