A. State of Diversity Address Announcement – Discussion Item

Jesica Rodriguez from the LEAD Office will address the Commission regarding the upcoming State of Diversity Address

Jessica from LEAD invited the committee to an event being thrown by the Office of Equity and Inclusion on April 24th in the I & I Building. The event is being thrown to speak about ongoing campus issues such as Immigration. All of the CIC's and the LEAD office are all safe spaces for all groups regardless of gender, race, sexual orientation, and more.

B. Allocation of Funds from Account Closures – Discussion/Action Item

The Commission will discuss and consider the allocation of the closed account funds. Tyler uploaded a poll for clubs to decide what they wanted to do with the newly found funds. Based on the poll, Tyler created a table detailing a five year breakdown of how the funds will be allocated. The commission decided that for the Commission Budget Increase there will be $2,000 allocated for the next five years. The commission agreed that organizations/clubs placed 4th to 11th will be receiving $200.

In regard to the registration fees, this means for conferences and events, clubs will be awarded $2,632.49 for the next three years. Shakoor also mentioned that clubs can put in PPR requests for the summer, but she's not sure if the upcoming BOD will be prepared to have a meeting during the time of the event. Clubs expressed that they wish there were more workshops to help better prepare them for how meetings, club accounts, fundraising, and the overall club/organization meeting work. Jessica from LEAD shared that there are workshops for clubs, but they will take into consideration possibly implementing more hands on workshop opportunities.

*M/ Anime Club, S/History Club to allocate the remaining club funds.
